MEN'S "GOOD FELLOWSHIP" AND BOOSTER MEETING UNANIMOUS FOR PEP

"Boost Ursinus" Theme of Student Council Conclave—Parade 'n Everything

Some said it couldn't be done, but they did it. And this is how it happened:

It had its conception in a meeting of the Historical-Political group two week ago. The seed sown there germinated, took root and started to grow. It became the talk of the dorms and when Student Council met a few days later those worthies heard it too. All thought it a good idea. Plans were made and a meeting scheduled for Monday. But, how about the Freshmen—should they come? No! Nor did they, except a few individuals who agreed to act as waiters. Just men were there and men they were, too. They gathered in the "Y" room, pulled out chairs and squatted in a circle. The meeting opened. There was a silence but it was only momentary. Speeches followed—many and varied, long and short, plain and flowery, but always open, frank and free from animosity.

It was called a "good fellowship" meeting and that was the keynote. The strange part about it all was that everyone seemed to possess the right key and they invariably struck the right note, too. To do away with all the razzing of the past and jazz it up for the future in respect to athletic and all other collegiate activities; to get at the root of all hall prejudices, personal animosities, inter-organization contentions, and the like; to lay before the altar of student opinion everything that might be responsible for the listless lethargy of the past and to present anything that might make for peppery achievement in the future—that was the purpose of the meeting, and nobly was it met.

Diagnosis after diagnosis was made, suggestion after suggestion was presented, cheer after cheer was raised and when it came time to sum up the results of the meeting it was discovered that instead of lasting an hour, as intended, the two hour mark had been passed. But the purpose of the meeting had been accomplished—"knockers" had been turned into "boosters"; "scuffers" into "praisers", and after the cup of hospitality had been drained to the dregs and Tomlinson had finished eating his fifth "dog-gie" sandwich, the contingent adjourned to the portico for lung exercise. Those in the town who had failed to hear the cheers from within found it difficult to sleep thru the songs and shouts that wafted thru the air from Freeland steps, and the parade that followed was too much in earnest to be boisterous. Girls, faculty and boosters were cheered in turn and when the end of the string

INTERSCHOLASTIC DEBATERS HOLD SECOND CONTEST

On Friday evening the high schools comprising the league in the various groups held their second round of debates. The victors in this contest are now eligible for a third round scheduled for April 8.

Of the North Penn Group East Greenville defeated Sellersville; no report of the Cheltenham-Lansdale contest has been received.

Of the Schuylkill Valley group Collegeville has no opponent due to the forfeiture on the part of the Norristown and Boyertown High Schools. Pottstown will meet Minersville on the latter's platform on March 31.

In the Chester county group Kennett Square forfeited to Lower Merion which remains as the winning school in that group awaiting a further contest before the final meeting next month.

SPRING WORK HAS BEGUN

FELLOW ALUMNI AND FORMER STUDENTS:

The stone masons have returned with the advent of non-freezing weather to finish the chimney tops and point the walls of the Alumni Memorial Library Building. The plumbers and electricians will come next. The Committee is pushing the work toward completion just as fast as together we furnish the money with which to do so. We hope the First of April will bring us another good harvest of cash. Every dollar helps. Do not wait to send all at once. The money thus delayed would go far to help us out in April.

Remit directly to A. P. FRANTZ, Treasurer, 2147 South 20th Street, Philadelphia.

YOUR COMMITTEE.

BASEBALL SQUAD BEING DRILLED IN FUNDAMENTALS

Thirty Men Report Daily For Practice

During the past week Coach Cornog drilled his squad of thirty baseball candidates in the fundamentals of the sport and has succeeded in shaping out a temporary varsity team. Patterson Field is the scene of daily scrimmages between the varsity and the two reserve teams and the results have not yet been in doubt, the first team having a very pronounced edge on the other teams. With a fair amount of good weather during this week, the coach will be able to place the best possible combination on the field for the first game on Saturday, April 1st, at Villanova.

The combination that promises to make history for the Red, Old Gold, and Black this season has lined up with Captain Canan at his old position at the hot corner where he fields in mid-season form; Eddie Faye at short-stop is as reliable and sensational as ever and proves himself an invaluable support to the infield; Wismer has convinced the fans that he is capable of handling the keystone stack with the confidence of a veteran; and Rahn at first base is scooping them out of the dirt in a manner which "Jake Daubert" might well envy. The playing of High has been nothing short of marvelous, especially in the heady manner in which he performs on the receiving end of the battery. He has proven himself one of the finds of the season. In the outfield the players that loom up as the possible varsity men are Paine, Yarnall, Smith, Kauffman, and Flitter. Kengle will play in the center field when he is not pitching. In the latter role he has shown considerable development under the tutelage of "Jing" Johnson and promises to be on the standby of the hurling corps. Elwood Cornog will be the nucleus of the pitching staff. His arm is in fine condition and he predicts the best season of his college career. Howells has been handicapped by sickness but he is rapidly getting into condition.

With the stick all of the first team are formidable. Kengle, Canan, High, Faye, and Yarnall have connected for many extra-base bingles. This year's team will be a hitting nine and will, we hope, shatter the confidence of all of the opposing pitchers. If the enthusiasm of the team continues as

ATTENTION — MONTGOMERY COUNTY ALUMNI BANQUET, APRIL 21

The greatly anticipated Montgomery County Banquet of Ursinus alumni and former students will be held at the Hotel Hamilton on Friday evening, April 21 at eight o'clock. The clans will gather at that hour, and dinner will be served promptly at eight-thirty. The price of tickets is two dollars and a half. This charge includes the dinner, tips, menus, and publicity. Tickets should be secured at once from your nearest committee-man. The committee consists of Edgar T. Robinson, 1409 Arch St., Norristown; H. R. Miller, Collegeville; Henry Ancona, Pottstown, Mrs. Dorothy Latshaw Buckwalter, Royersford; John H. Beltz, Schwenksville, and J. M. Fisher, Ambler.

The principal speaker will be Dr. Alba B. Johnson, President of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, and member of the College Advisory Board. Abraham H. Hendricks, Esq., has consented to serve as toastmaster. The College Orchestra will provide the music. If the service is as prompt as the Hamilton promises, there will be an opportunity for the young and old to engage in dancing. The Committee has whispered to the writer that everyone who comes will receive a beautiful present free, and "It won't be a gold brick either."

The invitation to join with the alumni on this occasion is extended to the Senior Class at College, Schuylkill Valley alumni outside the county, all former students, and members of their families. Remember the date and place. Get your tickets immediately.

Freshman Class Meeting

On Thursday evening the Freshmen held a class meeting. It was there that they showed their loyalty to their school and to their class. Each member was called upon to give his or her opinion on different matters which had been brought up during the week. After much discussion it was unanimously decided to play the Frosh-Soph basketball game. A call was made for players and about fifteen fellows responded.

After another short discussion the class of '25 decided that the committees previously appointed for the "Frosh-Junior shine" be permitted to go on with their work.

URSINUS SPLITS EVEN IN LAST DUAL DEBATE

Affirmative Team Wins at York; Juniata Victor in Philadelphia

The Ursinus negative team suffered a 3-0 defeat at the hands of the Juniata affirmative debaters in the Central Y. M. C. A. auditorium in Philadelphia on Friday evening.

The teams were evenly matched and the main speeches and rebuttals were given with equal power by both. But the concluding rebuttal speech of C. N. Ellis, the third Juniata speaker, won the affirmative the victory.

The negative speakers were Warren Bietsch, Carrol Rutter and W. Harry Snyder, Captain, with Newitt serving as alternate. The Juniata debaters were C. N. Ellis, Captain, J. E. Wardle and Edward van Ormer with Geo. Christman, alternate.

Snyder for Ursinus and C. N. Ellis for Juniata were easily the orators of the evening.

Dr. Henry A. Bomberger, of Bala, Pa., presided at the meeting.

In the most spirited forensic fray of the season, the Ursinus College debating team clinched victory from Juniata College in the final debating contest before an audience of about 500 in the York High School Auditorium at York, Pa., last Friday evening.

The question for the debate, "Resolved, That the U. S. Government Should Grant Immediate Independence to the Philippine Islands," was ably and clearly argued by the Collegeville team, upholding the affirmative side, and by the up-state boys, upholding the negative. The affirmative debaters stressed the Filipinos' desire for independence and their present capability of maintaining an orderly and well-established self-government by showing their educational and economic fitness. The negative on the other hand, offered points to show that the Filipinos are incapable of self-government by emphasizing the break-down in various departments, and further that we should keep the islands until they are sufficiently prepared for independence.

Rapid fire eloquence and clear cut arguments gave Juniata the advantage in the main speeches. A reversal occurred in the rebuttal as a result of carefully arranged and forceful refuting arguments of each Ursinus debater.

The judges of the debate cast two

WEEK OF PRAYER BRINGS WELL-KNOWN MINISTER TO URSINUS

Noted Presbyterian Minister Conducts Impressive Services During Week of Prayer

With practically the whole student body as an audience, Dr. J. E. Tuttle opened the Week of Prayer, so-called, on Monday evening last, with the first of three addresses on religious problems affecting student life. Starting with the proposition that religion is the most vital thing in the life of man, he proceeded to define religion as "the life of God in the soul of man."

The subject of his address he announced as "What Is It to be a Christian?" and he based his remarks on two works found in the writings of St. Paul—"in Christ".

"That", said Dr. Tuttle, "Is the secret of being a Christian—to be in Christ. It means the place that Christ is to have in our Christian life. To Paul these words meant that Christ is the Saviour from sin. Paul put Christ at the very center of his faith and looked to him for all life, for all truth, for all love, for all perfection."

But he pointed out further that it is not enough to put Christ as the center around which everything evolves. So far as that goes it is all right. We must, in addition, said the speaker, "fellowship with Him."

In concluding, Dr. Tuttle stated that we must have our creed and we must have our church membership but emphasized the fact that after all it is fellowship with Christ that counts for most. "The fellowship of Spirit to Spirit—that is what it means to be a Christian. Being a Christian does not mean to be a saint; it means merely to live with Christ and be as near like unto Him as possible, ever bearing in mind the fact that we are all human beings."

Tuesday Morning Chapel Address

The chapel address for March was delivered on Tuesday morning by Dr. Tuttle. Dr. Tuttle who visited Ursinus as special speaker for the two services of prayer held by the Y. M. and Y. W. associations, Monday and Tuesday evenings, is a great favorite with the student body, and the address in chapel service proved inspirational to all.

Dr. Tuttle took as his subject the "Greatness of the Call of God." Many calls come to the youth of this generation, and all are great—greater than they have been before in the history of the world. The call to greatness in political, in religious, even in commercial activities, is big—bigger than ever before.

Christ's vision went beyond the political, social, commercial—beyond all activities. His ambition is bigger than

Editorial Comment

It is with a keen sense of regret that we turn the editorial pen over to the members of the new staff who will take their places upon the appearance of this issue. We have enjoyed the short stay with you, kind reader, and we trust that our acquaintance has proved mutually beneficial. Whatever successes we have experienced during our term of office could not have been possible without your loyal support and unselfish co-operation. We especially wish to thank the many contributors among the students and alumni who on many occasions proffered their services voluntarily and with no hope of recognition.

Last spring when we entered upon our duties it was with a firm resolve to be true to the standard and high ideal which had been set for us by our predecessors. We feel that we have at times wavered from these ideals but it has never occurred intentionally.

To the incoming board we extend the heartiest congratulations upon their accession to the staff and we look for greater successes for them than it has been our lot to enjoy.

In passing we bid farewell to our many friends and co-workers in the field of collegiate journalism and in particular those who are members of the Intercollegiate Newspaper Association of the Middle Atlantic States. Thru the medium of the many exchanges which come to the editorial table we have sensed a marked improvement on every side. Gigantic strides have been taken in the collegiate newspaper world in the past year. Progress and expansion have been the universal watch-words. The collegiate press is only beginning to realize the potency of its position in educational affairs. In the moulding of good will towards people and institutions it possesses a grave responsibility which if assumed with becoming seriousness and reflection will call down unlimited glory and honor upon the heads of those in whom the success of the enterprise is vested.

H. A. A., Jr., '22

In the large sphere of college life where the outcome is left to individual initiative, new and dangerous tendencies are set at work—tendencies which not only gravely affect general social well-being, but which jeopardize the welfare of the college thru which it is designed that liberty and quality shall be fostered. The result is that there arise factions, antagonism, and criticism among the students which tend to destroy the unity of college spirit.

A movement for the creation of a better college spirit and a more satisfactory democracy in college life, such as was initiated at Ursinus but a few days ago, is not an innovation in the history of the institution, nor would such a movement be new in any other institution of learning. Enthusiasm in this line of endeavor has risen and fallen from time to time, and yet the evils which were to be remedied still remain. The difficulty has been in practicing the preached doctrine of democracy and the realization of the essential conditions under which a democracy will prosper. This is well borne out in the fact that there is a tendency for ideals to slip away from us and leave us unguided and perplexed when we attempt to act according to the principles of our doctrine, for the difficulty comes in adjusting our habits to our moral conceptions. The difficulty then, which those in the past failed to surmount, and which we of to-day must overcome if the present movement for the more satisfying democracy is to bear fruits, is to insure that our habits are adjusted in keeping with our moral concepts of democracy; for if this adjustment is not made, we will suffer from the strain of indecision in believing one hypothesis and acting upon another.

Fraternity is the final watchword of democracy. All protestations in favor of a better college spirit and a more satisfying democracy will be without avail if it is not realized that fraternity is more than a sentiment, but that it is an applied condition which makes possible liberty and equality. In a democracy all men are of the same rank, so far as position is concerned. It becomes incumbent then upon those who would foster a democracy that they have respect for a man as a man, without regard to his condition in life; for such is the soul of democracy. Our manners of courtesy and civility, altruism and benevolence are not relics of antiquated societies; they are the language of human intercourse, and express man's valuation of his fellowmen. The end of a democracy is not only to open closed paths, but to set goals at the ends of the paths. It is to give beauty and dignity to our relations.

The movement toward a social democracy brings the reassurance of the larger life which is the result of spending one's self thru channels of loyalty. Every altruistic motive in the relations of man to fellowmen is in itself twice blest. Our co-operation with the combination of intelligence and unity of purpose for a better college spirit will mean the realization of a greater Ursinus and a cherished Alma Mater.

Spellbinders!

Next Wednesday, March 29, the spellbinders will meet to complete plans for another tour of nearby schools. The schools they contemplate visiting are as follows: Lansdowne, Pa., and Palmyra, N. J.—Mr. Faye; Hatboro, Doylestown and Quakertown—Mr. Schlegel; Lambertville, N. J., Langhorne, and Newtown—Mr. Altenderfer; Darby, Pa., Wilmington, Del., and Dupont High School, Wilmington, Del.—Mr. Earl K. Miller.

ZWINGLIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

The drama held full sway in Zwing on Friday night. It was somewhat of a diversion from the usual miscellaneous program of small sketches, musical and literary numbers.

Mr. Kengle and his Darktown Harmony Boys opened the otherwise heavy program with a clever sketch of a lighter tone. A number of popular ballads were sung by the black-faced comedians—Messrs. Paine, Flitter, Yarnall and Kengle.

"Just Neighborly" was the title of the drama presented by the expression department, with Miss Ash as leader. The number showed a great deal of preparation and interest on the part of the players. The young women are to be congratulated for the excellent way in which they handled the various character parts. Miss Muschlitz as the ignorant, biased New England father again proved her dramatic ability. Her voice had the twang peculiar to New England country folk. Miss Eugenia Berger as his patient, simple wife looked and acted the part beyond criticism. The audience was quite in sympathy with her when the seemingly innocent, yet wholly harmful, Rhoda Webb tried to disillusion her. Miss Reimer handled the role of the village gossip, Rhoda, to perfection. Miss Ash as Byron Carr, the prodigal son, was more than convincing.

Mr. Garfield made his initial performance in a delightful violin solo. His encore, "April Showers," was an appropriate one.

The editor, Mr. Deibler, read an inspiring "Boost Ursinus" Review.

The regular monthly election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mr. Canan; vice-president, Mr. Leeming; recording secretary, Miss Nickel; corresponding secretary, Miss Futer; chaplain, Mr. Dobbs; musical director, Miss Wagner; critic, Mr. Paine; editor No. 1, Mr. Sieber, editor No. 2, Mr. Kartsakledys; Janitors, Messrs. Lutz and Garfield.

SCHAFF LITERARY SOCIETY

Mark Twain with all his humor and wit appeared in Schaff Hall on Friday night. The program was interspersed with solid material in the form of Twain's Biography and a criticism of his works.

The program was introduced by a "Humorous Dialogue" from Tom Sawyer, by Messrs. Fretz and G. W. Miller. A biography of Twain was presented by Miss Hoyer in an informative and interesting manner.

Miss Bookman and Mr. Shaeffer were leaders of another sketch from Twain, which was divided into three scenes:—"The Interviewer" portrayed by Miss Bookman and Mr. Reifsneider, "Hold-up" by Messrs. Schlegel and Houck, and "School-boy Love" by Messrs. Schlegel and Reifsneider. Each scene was thoroly appreciated.

Miss Poley gave a true analysis of Twain's characteristics in a criticism of him. A parody on Schaff Play written by Miss Gross and Mr. Sheeder, and lead by Mr. W. H. K. Miller, was another enjoyable feature. The Schaff Gazette by Mr. Bisbing contained a timely editorial on "Boost Ursinus."

The results of the election of officers follow: President, Mr. Weller; vice-president, Mr. Shaeffer; recording secretary, Miss Nettie Boyer; corresponding secretary, Miss Poley; pianist, Miss Feters; chaplain, Mr. Michael; 1st editor, Mr. Houck; 2nd editor, Miss Sara Hinkle; 3rd editor, Miss Haelig; janitors—Mr. Bisbing and Miss Deibert; critic, Miss McCavery.

Biological Club Holds Monthly Meeting

The regular meeting of the Biological Club was held Tuesday evening, March 20, at 8 o'clock in the Biology laboratory. Miss Xander in an interesting manner presented a well prepared paper on "Vitamines and Their Relations to Life." After a general discussion of the subject, a motion was unanimously carried that, due to the increasing number of social activities during spring, the club be disbanded for this collegiate year and be rejuvenated in September. The adjournment of the organization, therefore successfully marked the culmination of the embryo Club, and, what we hope, is the beginning of a mature organization.

Y. W. C. A.

The annual business meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was held on Wednesday evening with President Reimer in charge. Alice Berger led the devotions, reading from the famous sermon on the mount. After prayer the regular order of business prevailed.

The report of the nominating committee was read and accepted, after which the election of officers, for the ensuing term, was held.

While the ballots were being counted the annual reports of committee chairmen were heard. Taken as a whole the reports indicate a great deal of progress in the work of the Association during the past year. The regular work has been continued and a number of innovations have been made, among others, the monthly social for those not attending the Student Council dance. This feature has met with considerable success.

In looking back over the year the Association feels justly proud of its attainments and the future is bright with promise for further vitalizing and energizing this important phase of Ursinus girls' life. The blessing of God has been richly and bountifully upon us during the year and we pray for His continued guidance in the future.

The results of the election were announced as follows: President, Margaret Frutche; vice-president, Edna Detwiler; treasurer, Verna Kurtz; secretary, Beatrice Shafer; pianist, Sallie Mosser.

After a short but earnest speech by the President-elect, "Peg" Frutche, the meeting closed with the Lord's prayer.

TRACK TEAM ORGANIZES

The track enthusiasts organized last Friday night by electing Stover, captain, and Greenawalt, manager, for the 1922 season. Thus far the following men have reported for track runs: Greenawalt, Henning, Houck, Klopp, Michael, Miller, Neuroth, Powell, Seibert, Snyder, Stover, Tomlinson, Wildasin and Zendt.

Every man at Ursinus who is not out for baseball, ought to report for track. A fifteen minute run daily will put vim and vigor in him for the entire day. Report in running togs in the "Y" room at 4.15 every day and join the crowd.

East Greenville Debaters Victorious

The judges of the Interscholastic debate between Sellersville and East Greenville High Schools at East Greenville on Friday evening were Weller, '22, Greenawalt, '22, and Ehlman, '23. The vote was 2-1 in favor of the negative, the question being "Resolved, that the U. S. Should Maintain a Naval Strength Equal to That of Great Britain." That side was ably upheld by the East Greenville debaters.

Sellersville, by this defeat, is eliminated from further participation in the contests for the banner offered by the College.

The Tower Window

It is not too early to make known to our friends the change in the Commencement calendar which will be given a trial this year. The commencement events will begin on Friday and end on Monday instead of beginning on Sunday and ending on Wednesday as heretofore.

Friday, June 2, will be Class Day, the exercises being set for two o'clock. At eight o'clock in the evening we shall have the Oratorical Prize Contests. It is probable that the Ursinus Woman's Club will hold their annual business meeting and dinner following the Class Day exercises and attend the Oratorical Contests in the evening.

Saturday, June 3, will be Alumni Day. The Directors will hold their annual meeting at 10.00 a. m. The Alumni Athletic Club will meet at a business luncheon at noon. At one o'clock the business meeting of the Alumni Association will be held, closing in time to go to Patterson Field at three to witness the base ball game between Ursinus and Franklin and Marshall. The Alumni Dinner has been set at 5.30, and following the dinner will be held the President's Reception.

Sunday, June 4, will be Baccalaureate Sunday. Coming, thus in the midst of the commencement festivities, Baccalaureate Sunday will take on more importance than was given it in the old calendar. On invitation, the local congregations (Trinity and St. Luke's) have voted to hold no morning services, so that the people of the community may attend the college service. If preparation can be made, an oratorio or sacred cantata will occupy the evening. Sunday will thus be a helpful and enjoyable day for the large number of alumni and visitors who will be in Collegeville.

Monday, June 5, will be Commencement Day with exercises as usual.

The change in the calendar was made by the Faculty in deference to an overture from the Alumni Association asking that the commencement exercises be shifted from the beginning of the week as heretofore, to the week end, in order that visitors might find it more convenient to attend. We believe the calendar, as presented above will suit everybody except, possibly, the ministers. For these we hope to make Baccalaureate Sunday so attractive, that they will feel warranted in arranging for the supply of their home pulpits so that they too may enjoy the Sunday at the College.

Will all alumni, directors, parents and friends please note the change and reserve for Collegeville the dates—June 2-5, 1922.

Dr. Richards Next Chapel Speaker.

It was announced at the chapel service on Tuesday that the speaker at the monthly meeting in April will be Dr. George W. Richards, president of the Reformed Theological Seminary in Lancaster. The date has not yet been fixed.

Dr. Tuttle Speaks to Girls

The mission study classes of the Y. W. C. A. were cancelled on Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, and replaced by an informal address by Dr. Tuttle to all members of the classes, in Olevian reception room. Dr. Tuttle discussed several questions which were asked, and in his own contribution upheld the ideal of a womanhood which shows strength of character.

Piano Recital

A piano recital will be given in Miss Waldron's studio in Shreiner Hall on Thursday at seven-thirty. All are invited to attend.

'21. Thelma R. Wood was a visitor at the College on Wednesday and Thursday, a guest of Miss Dorothy A. Mentzer, '21, assistant instructor in music.

ALUMNI NOTES

'87. Dr. Charles E. Wehler in addition to his duties as vice president of Hood College and professor of History and Bible, is supplying the pulpit of Zion Reformed Church, Hagerstown, Md., during the absence of Dr. Scott Wagner, who is on a trip to the Orient.

'07. L. Dale Crunkleton recently represented the John C. Winston Book Co. at the meeting of the National Educational Association held at Chicago. Mr. Crunkleton will collaborate with several authors in the re-writing of a number of text-books.

Ambler, Montgomery County, will soon erect a new high school building, thru the efforts of J. M. Fisher, '12, supervising principal.

Prof. Maurice A. Hess, A. M., '14, is teaching in McPherson College, Kansas. One of his activities apart from his duties in the classroom, is to coach the debating teams of the college and academy. In this work Prof. Hess has achieved much success. His academy teams, affirmative and negative, recently won 3-0 decisions in debates with teams of Bethel and Bethany academies. In a dual debate with Kansas Wesleyan the McPherson teams both won by 2-1 decisions. The question debated was: Resolved, "That the Principles of the Kansas Court of Industrial Relations Should be Embodied in Federal Statute."

The big Philadelphia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church is being held in the Wharton M. E. Church of which Rev. W. E. P. Haas, a former Ursinus student, is pastor. Dr. George Henson, one of the Philadelphia district superintendents, also a former Ursinus student and now a director of the College, is expected to be re-appointed to his present position by Bishop Berry.

Bertram Light, '20, is completing his second year as the successful coach of Sunbury High School athletics.

'21. C. U. Shellenberger, varsity pitcher here during the last two seasons, now a student at the Reformed Theological Seminary at Lancaster, is reporting daily for practice at F. & M., in preparation for their first game, on April 1, with Lafayette. The comment of Lancaster papers is to the effect that he is their mainstay. "Shelly" is being developed into a first-class twirler by "Whitey" Price, '05, one-time coach at Ursinus, and now of football and baseball at F. and M.

Addresses Brotherhood of St. Paul.

Dr. Tuttle gave a most inspiring and helpful address at a short meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Paul on Tuesday afternoon.

After answering several questions to the great satisfaction of those present he based his remarks on three main ideas. "First," he said, "be human." Every man who is a student for the ministry ought to be active in the affairs of his college. He ought to enter into every phase of its activities to as great an extent as he possibly can. But he should remember always that he is just as much a minister when he has decided to enter the ministry as he ever will be. Bearing that in mind and holding before himself a wholesome regard for his life work, extra-curricular activities should prove very helpful. There is further, Dr. Tuttle suggested, a great advantage in the fellowship coming from the Brotherhood in itself and he called for greater activity in the religious life of the school and offered several suggestions as to how to make the organization more effective.

all—beyond all. To conquer the world with His ideal—His truth! Stupendous in its bigness.

His vision is big in its conception of God. The Jewish conception came nearer than any other, to the Christian idea, but the Jewish ideal was merely of a tribal god. Christ's conception is—Our Father.

His vision is big in its conception of man. This follows the other as a necessary result. God the Father—man the brother. The second is the inevitable conclusion of the first.

The greatness of God's call is manifested in the demands it makes on its members. Home, college, country, we judge the worth, the greatness of these by the big demands they make on us. Christ demands big things of His followers. "If any man will come after me, let him take up his cross and follow me."

The greatness of the call is shown in the confidence reposed in the called. A world-wide and an eternal call! And Christ gave this into the hands of twelve simple fishermen and thru them it has flamed thru the years to us. How dare He commit all ages and all lands to such men? Because He saw the greatness of the human soul.

Why does the call come to you? Because of the greatness, the divinity in each human being.

The future should strive to realize the radiant energy of each college campus—on us lies the responsibility. "They looked unto him and were lightened"—Christ, the Light of the World is to be manifested to the world thru our efforts.

Tuesday Evening Services

In his address to the students on Tuesday evening, Dr. Tuttle spoke impressively upon the great power that faith in God insures. He said that in Bible times the great question of adjustment to one's environment was prominent in the minds of the disciples. Peter asked concerning the life into which he was thrust "Who is sufficient for this?" Jesus answered simply, but effectively, "Have faith in God." Thus, thruout all the works of Christ we see that faith gives power to do that which from the human standpoint is impossible. In the eleventh chapter of Mark, Jesus said that faith could move a mountain, which in all minds symbolizes something stable, immovable—yet, faith does the impossible. The least amount of vital faith in God is greater than all impossibility—whosoever believes and has faith shall be saved.

The great reason why faith in God has such power is the fact that it is a revealing force, lifting all veils and showing mankind the actual facts. It does this, first, by giving an adequate knowledge of God and his processes; secondly, by giving a vision, without which we should perish; and finally by giving us hope, an unshakable foundation. So might we, too, equipped with the power which faith gives, say with Christ "My work is finished," meaning completed, not ended. Let us strive that this faith in Jesus Christ may grow richer and fuller, in spite of years or place.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM
MAKES GOOD RECORD

Drops Three Games in Whole Season

Fate seems to decree that the girls must always waive their last game, so their season ended in the victory over Cedar Crest, rather than with the game which should have been staged on Friday with Moravian College. The latter was cancelled on account of illness of several girls on the Moravian team. This left the record of the Ursinus sextette four victories and three defeats, two of which were at the hands of Temple, whose team has been undefeated for two years.

The season was very successful, as can readily be seen in the fact that we stand second to Temple only among the teams of Eastern Pennsylvania. For a college of our size that is a record of which to be exceedingly proud, especially when the records of our opponent teams are taken into consideration.

The first game, played at Beechwood, resulted in a defeat—45-20, due to Ursinus' unpreparedness as a team, and also to the fact that they were compelled to play the referee as well as the opposing team. But, three days later, on January 20, the tables turned and Cedar Crest bowed to defeat, 26-18, on their own floor. February 23, Temple overwhelmed Ursinus, 68-17, but gave them wonderful practice, which aided tremendously in granting the Red, Old Gold, and Black victory over Swarthmore the following day. In this close-fought game, all played well, making possible the close score 35-34.

The last three games were played at home: February 28, Ursinus won from Beechwood, 34-8; March 17, Temple won, 36-11; and finally on March 18, the girls ended by defeating Cedar Crest, 49-7.

Credit for this successful season is due in large measure to the faithful, persistent co-operation of Miss Roe and the team. Every girl worked from the beginning until the end, striving to perfect herself more and more. The result was favorable, as the season indicates. Collectively, the team played well, no one stalling but rather all working for the common good. Capt. Isenberg, at forward, was high scorer in every game, being ably assisted by Lawrence and Pegely. Mills played a consistent, steady game with Xander and Evans as her support. Isenberg and McCaverty, at guard, took care of the defensive in fine style.

Schedule and scores:

Beechwood	45,	Ursinus	20
Cedar Crest	18,	Ursinus	26
Temple	68,	Ursinus	17
Swarthmore	34,	Ursinus	35
Beechwood	8,	Ursinus	34

CIVIC CLUB PRODUCTION

REFLECTS CREDIT UPON

ACTIVITY OF THE BODY

On Saturday night, March 25, the Civic Club of Collegeville presented a pleasing comedy, "The Commuters." This play, which was a huge success when presented in the Criterion Theatre, New York City, left the expectant audience which crowded Bomberger no less satisfied.

The theme of the plot, which is essentially modern and striking, is based on home life in a New York City suburb. The story is deeply concerned in the commuting of Mr. Brice and his late hours. The other commuters, Messrs. Rolliston, Colton and Applebee, all fascinated by the enticing bachelor, Sammy Fletcher, together with Mr. Brice, have been making a rendezvous of the unmarried man's flat. Much to the bachelor's amusement, he learns how much their respected wives think of him.

Miss Ethel Fox, '23, at a party given at her home on Friday evening, announced her engagement to Mr. Russell Prizer, of Parkerford.

The truth is mighty elastic. Many a man can stretch it without breaking his word.

Ursinus Splits Even In Last Dual Debate

ballots in favor of Ursinus and one in favor of Juniata.

The judges for the debate were: H. C. Niles, Rev. W. V. Hogue, and Dr. C. H. Ehrenfeld.

Representing Ursinus were Franklin I. Sheeder, Jr., Malvern Buchanan, Edwin T. Undercuffler and E. K. Miller. Juniata's debaters were Glenn Norris, Tobias Henry, and Stanley Stoup, with Harry Johnson as alternate.

The Ursinus debaters were entertained on their visit at York at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Heindel and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Deitz.

Men's "Good Fellowship" and Booster Meeting

had been reached they repeated ad infinitum—or until hoarse.

And thus it ended. "Bury the hammer and pick up a horn" was the slogan that survived. To "Buck" Hunter was assigned the task of picking up the odds and ends of the meeting itself, mould them into some shape and present them to the assemblage at a later date. Since he needed some help a committee was appointed to assist him and it is expected that there will be something doing this week again. Another committee with Paine at the head agreed to keep owl-like eyes on the redcaps and make them toe the mark henceforth and forevermore.

But the best part of it all was that hereafter men and women will not be allowed to mix at athletic contests—what bliss! Will wonders never cease? They tell us that pep has come to stay. Here's hoping it has!
